Another Year of Grace

President L. W. GOEBEL

This greeting, addressed to the readers of the Year Book, is being written in one of the most significant moments in the history of our Church. In June, 1949, fifteen years had elapsed since that memorable day on which the Reformed Church in the United States and the Evangelical Synod of North America united to form the Evangelical and Reformed Church. If at this historic occasion it could truly be declared that the union then effected was established on the basis that we were already one in heart and mind, then today it is equally correct to claim that we have fully come to be one in life and work. Gratefully we dare add that we are now more than ever persuaded that this union was of God, for He has not ceased to bless our labors and fellowship.

Now after fifteen years we again find ourselves at the threshold of a union with a body of churches which share with us the faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. The final action looking toward this union has now been taken by the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church. During the year in which this publication will furnish the source material for information regarding the work of our communion, the first General Synod of the United Church of Christ is scheduled to meet. This impending union has been aptly referred to as the most creative event in the history of American Protestantism. We are not given to the use of superlatives. Nevertheless we are agreed that the consummation of this union cannot but serve to hasten the coming of that much to be hoped for day when, more effectively than at present, the followers of Christ in America, through their united witness and service, will build a more truly Christian community. To that end and for the expansion of Christ's rule throughout the world may God add his blessings to our labors, our hopes and our prayers.

While thus gratefully contemplating the past and prayerfully directing our attention to the future, we dare not fail to address ourselves with vigor to the tasks of the present. The Church of our time finds herself confronted with challenges which test her faith and her courage. In many countries of historic Christendom she encounters not only indifference but open hostility. In our own country she is confronted with a growing spirit of secularism. By this we mean that the leaven of the world has penetrated the very life of our Church. The supreme challenge to us as Christians then is to permit our individual lives to be so permeated with the spirit of our Lord that the leaven of His kingdom may overcome the leaven of the world through our faith and our manner of life. The Christian gospel alone can convince the people of our day and our land that mere conventional morality does not suffice to save us from decay and from destruction. Only the grace of a holy and yet ever loving God can redeem a people and furnish the power which renews its life. This is the challenge which we need meet through our labors of love in the local church and our works of faith throughout the world.

It is not the sole aim of this Year Book to furnish a statistical account of the status of our denomination. Rather would it serve the purpose of acquainting our people with the vastness of the enterprise in which all members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church are engaged. As we carefully peruse its pages we will find ourselves impelled to thank God that we are privileged to share in this world embracing service. Nor will we fail to beseech God that He may. even more richly than in the past, bless our Church throughout the year into which we are about to enter. It is our prayer, therefore, that 1950 may be for you and all of us truly a year of God's grace.

Heidelberg College

On November 11, 1950, Heidelberg College will begin her second century of education and Christian serv-

President Terry Wickham has announced that the program of events for this anniversary, already begun, will continue throughout the year and that the centennial observance will center around two major events—Commencement, June 10-12 and Founders Day, November 11. Religious leaders and other outstanding speakers will be brought to the campus and special programs and conferences will emphasize the place of religion in a well rounded education.

Like many other colleges, Heidelberg is the daughter of the Church. It came into existence through action taken at a special meeting of the Synod of Ohio in the early part of 1850, after several years of determined effort.

About the middle of the 19th century the Reformed Church had reached the point in its development in the west when a college and seminary had to be established if the Church was to train its own sons for the ministry and mission work, instead of having them educated in colleges of other denominations. Many of the young men in our eastern schools were not willing to endure the hardships and privations of missionary work and those in the west were reluctant to go east to school.

After many suggestions as to the site of the new college and seminary, three were given final consideration—Worthington, Tarlton and Tiffin, Ohio. Tiffin was finally chosen. Citizens and other friends soon rallied to her support and the College was formally opened November 11, 1850, in rooms on the third floor of what was known as "Commercial Row" in downtown Tiffin. The name Heidelberg was given to this new institution by the Synod at its meeting in Navarre, Ohio, September 1850. This historical name was derived from the Heidelberg Catechism which, in turn, had derived its name from Heidelberg University in Germany.

The statement of purpose, according to the first catalog, was "to establish Heidelberg College upon a broad and comprehensive basis . . . designed to meet the peculiar wants of the different classes of the community; thus bringing within reach of all an appropriate, and, so far as possible, a thorough education." Through its hundred years of educational service Heidelberg has tried to fulfill these hopes of the "founding fathers."

The corner-stone of the first building, now known as Founders Hall, was laid in May 1852. The building was occupied in the spring of 1853 and contained the College and Seminary as well as rooms for students and two literary societies. In 1907 the Heidelberg Theological Seminary merged with the Ursinus School of Theology and was later transferred to Dayton and became known as Central Theological Seminary. In 1934 it was merged with Eden Seminary in St. Louis.

From this small beginning Heidelberg is now entering her second century with over eight hundred students, a campus of 28 acres and 16 buildings, including residence halls, science building, Music Hall, gymnasium, College Hall with its classrooms and executive offices, College Commons, Home Economics and Infirmary.

By a recent action of the College Board of Trustees, ground is to be broken soon for a new gymnasium and men's residence hall. Plans are also under way to complete the Centennial Campaign of $1,000,000, over half of which is already subscribed. The favorable position in which Heidelberg now finds herself was not obtained without some struggle. Rev. Hiram Shaull of Tiffin, who raised the first $11,030 to bring the College to Tiffin, Henry Leonard, known as "The Fisherman," Dr. Charles E. Miller, president from 1901 to 1937 and under whom Heidelberg saw her greatest growth in endowment and buildings, and the many devoted teachers are a few of the outstanding figures in the development of the College.

It was "The Fisherman" who, through the dark period before, during and after the Civil War, travelled 84,000 miles throughout the West gathering what money he could to keep the College from sinking. No gift was too small.

In the early days the teachers many times received as salaries that which was left after the College bills were paid.

Today Heidelberg stands as a monument to those devoted persons who have gone before. She now has the highest academic recognition. Through her doors have passed thousands of young men and women, who received their education amidst Christian surroundings. The fields of service for which these alumni have been educated are many. And the College now offers courses in business administration, teaching, religious education, chemistry, home economics, music, physical education, speech and dramatics, secretarial science. She also prepares students in such pre-professional courses for the ministry, medicine, nursing, dentistry, music, law, library science, engineering, social service and in other allied fields.

Heidelberg now looks forward to greater service in her next one hundred years.

This Is No Time To Grow Weary

DR. HENRY C. KOCH

Dr. Koch

Our Commission on World Service has a responsibility to the constituency of the Evangelical and Reformed church that goes beyond the raising and administering of funds for relief and rehabilitation of wartorn countries. It is the duty of the office of the Commission to bring to the attention of the church the picture of continuing world needs and to set the meeting of those needs within the total program of the church.

We have until June, 1950 to complete the drive for a minimum of three million dollars authorized by the General Synod in 1947. In some sections of the church our members have contributed far beyond their "quota" share. They have given as their concern for world needs has dictated. Their giving has been an inspiration to the entire church. In other parts of the church the picture is not as encouraging, but here too one finds, among the leaders of the synods and among the individual churches, those who have risen above the indifference of their own fellow churches and set an example of compassionate giving. It is difficult to realize what power for good has been released in these gifts. A power for good not only among those to whom the gifts have gone but to the church at home. The most dangerous postwar development is the callousness with which American Christians face the world situation and in particular the needs among suffering

This article can only allude to a few of the urgent needs as they develop in intensity at the present time. Heading all other needs are those among the displaced persons and refugees. The displaced persons' need is for immigration to this country. Our Evangelical and Reformed Church is not among the leading denominations in this as it is in so many other world service ministries. Full details about submitting assurances for DPs may be secured from our office or from the pastor of the church. Enriching experiences are in store for those who enter into this program and aid in the resettlement of these unfortunate people. One hears time and again how these displaced people find a new opportunity in this country and how they contribute out of their rich culture to the betterment of communities and the infusion of a new life into local situations,

The refugee situation is much more foreboding of ill possibilities. Political, military, and church leaders ex-press fear for the future unless an intelligent facing of the situation comes about. In some areas the percentage of refugees is higher than that of former citizens. In Schleswig-Holstein sixty per cent are refugees. Our church has a two-fold ministry at the present time. It helps in securing food, clothing and medicaments for the most needy. It also contributes to the spiritual ministry to these people who are fertile soil for doubt, frustration and nihilism. Spiritual ministry is being carried on through native pastors at some points and at other points through pastors who go in from long distances. Part of the spiritual ministry in the diaspora program which concerns itself with the Protestant people who being in the minority and who now live in former Catholic communities have no facilities nor opportunity for worship, or any of the community services necessary to sadly uprooted folk. Our church has agreed to contribute seventy thousand dollars toward the establishing of community centers where these people can have some of these essential ministries. Refugees in Europe are only a part of some fifty million throughout the world!

Our Evangelical and Reformed Church has contributed aid to the building of ten churches, toward the rebuilding of 1,693 completely destroyed churches. Our institutional program, toward which a hundred thousand is to be given, helps in bringing the barest necessities to the orphans, sick and old people. Some seven hundred institutions have either been completely destroyed or badly damaged. The German church has succeeded fairly well in rehabilitating these institutions but must have help in securing the materials to carry on their ministry. In all, we contributed through our "adoption program" toward the care of individuals in fifty of the 2,734 charitable institutions rehabilitated by the German relief agency, not including aid going to Asia on same program. In every instance the work must be continued if we are not to lose what good we have done.

Included in the listing of these few illustrations should be the larger overall program carried on by our church in cooperation with all other denominations. It reaches into every area of urgent need and speaks on behalf of Christian people a love and compassion which this sorely tried world needs more than anything else.

Reports from our Board of International Missions indicate that the allocation set aside for their purposes of rebuilding war-destroyed institutions will not nearly suffice. In addition it has been necessary to contribute fifty thousand dollars each year toward the relief of native workers many of whom are breaking in health of body and mind.

No generation has been as fertile for Christian witnessing as ours. No nation has so significant an opportunity for moral leadership as America, and no institution in America is as responsible for an enlightened conscience as is the church. The Evangelical and Reformed Church has a part in that witnessing which it cannot escape, nor does it want to escape it. It is in the giving of the light that we receive light.

We have more money to raise in the final year of our triennium than in any of the other previous ones. Nothing short of genuine sacrifice will help reach our goal. That goal must be reached only because it represents the kind of fellowship without which the church cannot live.

Union with the Congregational Christian Churches

SECRETARY WILLIAM E. LAMPE

The progress of the negotiations toward union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches is briefly recorded each year in our Year Book. These consecutive statements constitute an informal but rather complete factual report of the steps taken by the two denominations.

In the 1949 Year Book it was recorded that consequent upon approval of the Basis of Union by our General Synod in 1947 and by 33 of our 34 Synods in the spring of 1948, the Evangelical and Reformed Church was ready for consummation of the union.

It was further reported that the Congregational Christian General Council (corresponding to our General Synod) in June 1948 approved the Basis of Union with the addition of eight "understandings" or "interpretations" of certain items which the opposing minority contended were not clearly stated in the Basis of Union.

These interpretations have no reference to doctrine, or the activities of the Boards and agencies of the United Church, or any matters vitally related to its life and work. They deal solely with matters of government. They guarantee that the congregations will continue to enjoy the rights and freedoms which have always been theirs. They give assurance that the churches and the Associations, Conferences and General Synod of the United Church will be self-governing, each having autonomy in its own sphere and sustaining "free and voluntary relationships" with the others.

Since these provisions are in accord with what is known as the "congregational" form of Church government, they seemed to our General Council and our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches to be designed to make the United Church of Christ more "congregationally" governed. The Congregational Christian General Council nevertheless specifically stated that these interpretations of the Basis of Union were "intended to clarify its meaning and significance to the Congregational Christian Churches."

The affirmative vote of the Conferences, Associations and congregations voting upon the Basis of Union had in the first two groups exceeded the 75% recommended by the Congregational Christian Commission on Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity; the vote of the congregations, however, was only 65.5% favorable. Of the 5765 congregations, 1455 had not voted. The General Council therefore appointed a Committee of Fifteen to submit the Basis of Union, with the interpretations, to the congregations in order to secure, if possible, approval by 75% of their number, by January 1, 1949. While the efforts of the Committee were to be directed toward securing approval from the churches which had voted "no," or had not voted at all, those which had voted "yes" were to be given an opportunity to vote again. In the event of failure to secure the recommended 75% affirmative vote, the General Council was empowered to hold a special meeting to determine whether the percentage secured might be regarded as sufficient.

By January 1, 1949, the favorable vote of the churches was only 72.2%. The General Council therefore met in special session at Cleveland, Ohio, on February 4th and 5th. It reviewed all pertinent data and allowed the proponents and opponents of union full opportunity to present their arguments. By a vote of 757 to 172, it decided that the percentage of congregations approving the Basis of Union, with the interpretations, warranted the consummation of the union, and it authorized its Executive Committee (corresponding to our General Council) to take the necessary steps to consummate the union.

The first reaction of the Evangelical and Reformed Church to the Congregational Christian interpretations was not favorable. Our General Council believed that it was necessary to call a special meeting of our General Synod to consider and act upon them. It became increasingly apparent, nevertheless, that our people were so favorable to Church union in general and to this union in particular that they would do everything possible to meet the situation.

A special meeting of our General Synod was held in Cleveland, Ohio, April 20th and 21st. After frank and full discussion, the General Synod by a vote of 249 to 41 approved the interpretations and submitted them to our Synods for their approval.

Our Synods held their annual spring meetings immediately afterward and one by one voted to approve the interpretations; only the last Synod to meet voted to disapprove. The votes of the Synods are as follows:

	Yes	N
California	32	1
Central Pennsylvania	61

All the necessary steps toward union have now been taken by both denominations. In accord with authority granted our General Council and the Congregational Christian Executive Committee, plans are now being made to consummate the union.

On June 2, 1949, the Administrative Committee of our General Council and the Advisory Committee of the Congregational Christian Executive Committee held a joint conference for the purpose of making recommendations to our General Council and the Congregational Christian Executive Committee regarding arrangements for the consummation of the union. Since 1950 is the year for the regular meetings of our General Synod and of the Congregational Christian General Council, the advisability of synchronizing those meetings was recognized. It was therefore recommended that they be held in June 1950, beginning on Tuesday the 20th, in Cleveland, Ohio, that the consummating meeting of the General Synod of the United Church be held on the evening of Monday the 26th, and that the General Synod of the United Church hold its business sessions June 27, 28 and 29.

Our General Council and the Congregational Christian Executive Committee, meeting separately and then in joint session at Cleveland in September 1949, voted to adopt these recommendations. To those in our fellowship there is special significance in the fact that the United Church of Christ will come into being on the 16th anniversary of the union forming our present Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Ordinations

Ordination is the last solemn act by which the Church bestows upon applicants the full rights and privileges of Christian ministers. Applicants must be at least twenty-one years of age. They may be ordained in the congregations of which they are members. The Committee on Ordination shall be appointed by the president of the Synod of which the applicant is a member. Only ordained ministers shall serve in the act of ordination.

Ordination is usually dependent upon a call from a charge, but, with the approval of the President of the Church, a Synod may ordain applicants when, in the judgment of the Board of Examiners of the Synod, the nature of their work justifies ordination.

The following record of Ordinations includes all those that were officially reported to the Office of the Secretary of the Church either by the officiating committees or by the presidents of the Synods. They cover the period ending September 1, 1949. It happens every year that some ordinations are not reported in time to be included, with the result that the editors are sometimes censured without reason.

Ministers are again reminded that the figures appearing in connection with their names in the Register of Ministers indicate the year of ORDINATION and not the year of GRADUATION from a seminary. In a number of instances these years are not identical.

Students for the Ministry

The appended lists represent the number of students for the ministry as reported in the 1948 statistics submitted by the congregations. The 1947 reports showed 392 in the denominational schools and 169 in other schools, or a total of 561. It is hoped that the 1948 figures may be prophetic of a steady increase in the years ahead. Eden Seminary with a total enrollment of 115 (fifty new students), has exceeded its goal of 100 for this term. Lancaster has a total enrollment of 70, with an entering class of 22. The Mission House total exceeds that of last year. The outlook for the future, therefore, is very encouraging.

The work of the Committee on Life Enlistment was during the year made the responsibility of the department of Student Work of the Board of Christian Education and Publication at Philadelphia, Rev. Charles W. Schwantes, Director. All matters relating thereto should be addressed to him at the Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race Street. The figures for 1948 follow:

"So You're a Consistoryman"

This is the intriguing title of a booklet of 61 pages written by Dr. James E. Wagner of Lancaster, Pa., and released through the Department of United Promotion, Dr. J. N. LeVan, Director. The booklet contains nine brief chapters calculated to guide elders and deacons in the fulfillment of their high office.

calculated to guide elders and deacons in the fulfillment of their high office.

Such graphic statements as "You Are a Republican," "Elders Are Bishops,"
"You Are a Minister," "The Pastor's Eyes," "You Are a Link," etc., give a snap to every section—and all written in that conversational, newsy style for which the author is so well known.

The eight pages of the chapter on "When You Get a New Pastor" contains the last word on helps that are so sorely felt and needed when a congregation is without a minister. When a vacancy occurs in the pulpit there is often another vacancy in the consistory—a vacancy in knowing what to do next and how to do it in the best way.

By action of the General Council and through the provision made by the Department of United Promotion, copies of the booklet are available, free of charge, to all congregations in sufficient quantity to provide one copy for every consistoryman. Consistories that have not yet been supplied should get into touch with the Department of United Promotion, 1003 Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa. General Church literature of a promotional character may also be obtained by addressing the same Department.

Names and Stations of Missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in our seven stations, viz., Africa, China, Honduras, India, Iraq, Japan, and South America. A comparison with the lists shown last year reveals that a number of those who were under appointment then are now on the frontier making their contribution to the work in no uncertain way. This evidences progress which is most encouraging to the leaders as well as to the home Church. The names of those who are now preparing themselves for life service abroad are given at the end of every section.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as of the appointees will be found in the Register of Ministers in this edition of the Year Book. The names in italics after the post office addresses of lay missionaries represent the Stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses. Such addresses of missionaries home on furlough as were known at the time of going to press are given in the Register of Ministers.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From September 15, 1948, to September 1, 1949

The passing of thirty-eight ministers was reported to the office of the Secretary of the Church since the last Year Book was published. This is the smallest number that has been reported for a number of years, for which circumstance we thank the kind heavenly Father. The number includes thirty-seven ordained ministers and one licentiate. As is frequently the case, one of these should have been included in the 1949 Year Book, but the news of his death was not received in time. Of the ordained ministers ten were pastors, twenty-six died in retirement and one had been inactive for some years. Many of those who had retired were unusually active as supply pastors and in other relations. Their average age was 76 years, 9 months and 22 days. The oldest attained the advanced age of 92, and the youngest was called away at the age of 28, in the fourth year of a very fruitful and promising ministry.

The accompanying pictures have been made possible through the assistance of surviving members of the families and others who kindly cooperated in providing the necessary photographs from which the cuts were then made. Grateful mention of this cooperation is hereby made and the sincere thanks of the editor and the Committee on Year Book expressed. It is regretted that in three instances no pictures were available for this purpose, for which reason only the brief life sketches are given.

It is fitting that passing mention also be made of the death of the large group of elders and deacons who as ordained officers in the local congregations exercised their ministry so faithfully and held up the hands of those who were called into pastoral leadership. Together with the latter they form the great cloud of witnesses by whom we are compassed about, who ran with patience the race that was set before them, ever looking unto Jesus, the perfecter of their faith.

OUR EARLY BEGINNINGS

Falkner Swamp Reformed Church-1725

Upon the eve of the proposed union with the Congregational Christian Churches, which Dr. Cavert of the Federal Council of Churches has characterized as one of the most significant ventures in Church union of the past forty years, we offer thanksgiving and praise to the great Head of the Church for the signal way in which He has led us as an Evangelical and Reformed Church since the merger on June 26, 1934.

The two pictures shown on these pages are infinitely more than merely historic or factual in aspect and meaning. They are the symbols of the consecration, faith, vision and tenacity of purpose which characterized the early fathers of the Reformed Church in the U.S. and the Evangelical Synod of North America in pioneering for Christ and the Gospel in our frontier areas of two hundred and one hundred years ago.

That which was consummated on American soil in 1934 had its spiritual origin in the province of the Palatinate, Germany. When in 1559 Frederick the Elector, intolerant of the trouble makers among the Calvinists and Lutherans, expelled them from the province and effected a union of the more conservative elements in each group, a new church was born which in the Palatinate came to be known as the Reformed Church.

Near the beginning of the eighteenth century a Reformed and Lutheran migration found its way from New York into Pennsylvania from the Palatinate. Ordained ministers, among whom could be mentioned John Frederick Hager, Henry Hoeger and Samuel Guldin, sought out the Reformed families and ministered to them. By the year 1725, three organized congregations emerged, viz., Falkner Swamp, Skippack and Whitemarsh, all within forty miles of Philadelphia. A schoolmaster, John Philip Boehm, who had come to America from the Palatinate in 1720, was serving these congregations. His status was that of a "lay reader," but in 1729 he was ordained through the good offices of the Dutch Reformed Church in New York. The first communion was administered at the Falkner Swamp Church on October 15, 1725.

Close contemporaries with Boehm were George Michael Weiss, who came to Philadelphia with a group of four hundred Palatines, and Michael Schlatter who came from Holland with the express purpose of establishing a bond of union and fellowship among the Reformed congregations and ministers. This Holland connection proved to be a great blessing in many ways. An informal meeting of four ministers and twenty-seven elders was convened in 1746, and out of it grew the first Coetus, which was organized on September 29, 1747. The Coetus period extending from 1747 to 1792 was epochal in character, and has left its impress to the present day. From these early beginnings, through successive stages there emerged the Reformed Church in the U.S., the senior and larger member in the merger of 1934.

EARLY BEGINNINGS NIIR

The origin of the Evangelical Synod of North America is similarly to be traced to a union of those Lutheran and Reformed Churches that were located in the northeastern part of Germany. In 1817 the Prussian king, Frederick William III, intervened to reconcile certain differences between rival religious groups in the province. With his encouragement and probably influenced by a strong pietistic movement that was then sweeping through Germany, the leaders agreed to mediate their differences with the result that the two groups were united under the name of the "United Evangelical Church of Prussia," sometimes referred to as the "Prussian Union."

Following cruel invasions and revolutions a second great wave of German immigration brought many adherents of the Prussian Union to America at the beginning of the nineteenth century. Instead of remaining in the east the vast majority of them moved westward and settled in what were then the far western states of Missouri and Illi-There the Old World religious ideas were accommodated to the conditions on the American frontier and gave rise not to a new Lutheran or a new Reformed Church but to an Evangelical Church which bound both groups together into a close Christian communion.

Soon there was felt the need of a closer fellowship and an official relationship. To that end, a group of six pastors, four of whom had been sent by missionary societies in Germany, one a Reformed pastor, and the sixth an independent minister, assembled in the small log-cabin parsonage at Gravois Settlement, Mo., on October 15, 1840, and covenanted together to serve the spiritual needs of the German immigrants in that area. These six men, in the order in which they are identified above, were Louis Nollau, Philip Heyer, John Riess, George Wall, Charles Daubert and Herman Garlichs.

The establishing of a theological seminary at Marthasville, Mo., in 1850 was of great importance, not only in raising up a native ministry but also in enlisting the loyalty and support of the laity who had felt some reluctance in allying themselves with the cause in its early stages.

From the very beginning the Evangelical Synod evidenced the ecumenical spirit, and showed a willingness to fraternize and unite with other groups. This came to full fruition in the historic merger of 1934. "Sisters of a common mother, coming to America at different times, settling in widely separated areas of the United States, each in its own way developed into the full stature of an American denomination. Yet neither lost the vision and appreciation of their common heritage. Separated by the course of historical development, the two churches found each other in order jointly to continue their labors in the unity of the Spirit and the bond of peace."

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies, especially with reference to the time that must elapse between the date of the will and the death of the testator. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. Where several Boards or institutions are to be remembered, a separate paragraph beginning, "I give and bequeath," etc., should be made for each one. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered.

It is for this reason that this article appears immediately after the list of Legal Titles and Addresses of the Boards, Agencies and Institutions of the Church, and it should be of great service to all who may be interested. Pastors should be consulted for information upon any cause not listed.

1948 Statistics by States EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

Locations of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint Johns and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

The Presidents

of the Thirty-four Synods

THIRTEEN new presidents were elected at the spring meetings of the Synods and twelve were re-elected for a second term. One president relinquished his office in mid-summer to assume the duties of a departmental field secretary. All but one of the thirty-four are the pastors of influential congregations in their respective Synods. The single exception is in the Pittsburgh Synod, where the incumbent is serving as the only full-time president in the Church. At the spring meeting he was elected for his first full term of four years. The pictures of the presidents, together with their addresses and the Synods they serve, are given herewith. Their complete addresses may be found in the Register of Ministers, and the Rosters of the Synods indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

"The president of the Synod shall have been a member of the Synod

"The president of the Synod shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than three years and a minister of the Church for not less than five years. . . . The term of office for the officers of the Synod shall be two years. After two full terms of office the president and vice-president shall not be eligible to succeed themselves." (By-Laws, Art. 5, Sec. 57.)

Review of the 1948 Statistics

A SUMMARY of the 1948 statistics of the congregations and Synods shows that the total accessions for the year numbered 46,813. This would be a splendid increment were it not for the fact that there must be taken into consideration the total losses of 41,449. This makes a net gain of 5,364. Our total membership as of December 31, 1948, was 718,635.

The accessions for 1948 were by confirmation 20,908, by transfer 12,601 and by renewal 13,304. The losses were by death 11,449, by transfer 11,315 and by erasure 18,685. The large number of erasures, which exceeded the 1947 total by 1,580, figured heavily in the small net gain in membership. Six Synods reported net losses as compared with two in 1947. They were California, East Pennsylvania, Lehigh, Reading, Rocky Mt. and Southeast Ohio. Eleven other Synods reported a net gain of less than 100. Lancaster and Missouri Valley Synods, with net gains of 524 and 506 respectively, led in this particular. There were 1,298 congregations which reported no net gain in membership for the year. We need not look farther for an explanation of the disappointingly small net increase in membership.

The number of pastors, 1,761, and that of ministers without charge, 681, represent a gain of four and a loss of thirty-three respectively. The gain in the number of charges from 2,055 to 2,066 and the loss in the number of congregations from 2,784 to 2,766 can both be accounted for through natural causes. The result should be greater efficiency in parish administration and fewer vacant congregations. The average membership of the congregations was 260 as compared with 256 in 1947 and 254 in 1946.

For the first time in four years the records show a loss in the total Church School enrollment, the total of 436,512 being 6,536 less than in 1947. However, the average attendance of 61% means a gain of 1% over that of 1947.

It is in the area of contributions that the most significant increases were registered. For the first time in the history of the Church the amount paid on the benevolent apportionment exceeded the two million dollar mark. According to the reports the total contributed for this fund was $2,009,277, or an increase of $232,265 over 1947. A measure of encouragement can also be taken from an increase of $153,963 in the offerings for World Service, the recorded total for the year being $784,863. The total of all benevolences for the year was $3,923,835, or an increase of $210,034.

The current expenses totalled $10,631,761 as compared with $9,808,448 in 1947, and for total congregational purposes there was expended the total of $17,358,946—an increase of $3,310,764.

In estimating the value of parsonages and other church buildings there is apparently no uniformity, due no doubt to the absence of any criteria by which these valuations should be measured. The parsonages are valued at $14,111,058, and all other church buildings at $111,600,519, both of which represent increases of 11%. A total of $950,349 was paid for principal and interest on debt, while the total debt of the congregations mounted from $2,944,401 to $3,673,826. A close study of the congregational reports reveals that there was an unusual amount of repairing, renovating and enlarging during the year, all of which was probably done at the prevailing high costs, and it is reasonable to believe that all of these are represented in the increased indebtedness.

Statistical Tables of the Congregations

For the Year Ending December 31, 1948

There is something divine about statistics. In the dim, distant past God directed his chosen leaders to "take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel." As a result we have the Book of Numbers in the Bible. Without the modern means of communication it is difficult to realize how this could be done so thoroughly, and one cannot help but wonder whether somewhere between Dan and Beersheba there might have been some "Synods" that did not attain the 100% goal or some "congregations" that did not send in their reports!

There is also something human about statistics. One of our younger pastors sat in the office of the Secretary of the Church while the proof-reading of the following statistical section was in progress. He soliloquized: "When I receive that long envelope with all those statistical blanks enclosed it makes me mad all over. But after I assemble the figures and complete the report it makes me feel good. I can then see the results of my work for the year, where I have succeeded and where my efforts need to be extended. It is just like looking into the mirror to see myself as I really am."

The following statistical tables of the 2,766 congregations, after being edited and double-checked, are herewith presented as the official statistics of the Church for the year ending December 31, 1948. The cooperation of all who labored so willingly and faithfully in making this record possible is greatly appreciated. With sincere regret we report that there were 78 non-reporting congregations as compared with 62 in 1947, and there were only 16 one hundred per cent Synods as compared with 21 in 1947. The 16 Synods in the order in which they attained the 100% goal are N.E. Ohio, Rocky Mt., Lancaster, Pacific N.W., Reading, Lehigh, Philadelphia, East Penna., Mercersburg, Southern, S.E Ohio, New York, S. Illinois, Magyar, N. Illinois and Central Penna.

The 78 non-reporting congregations are distributed among the Synods as follows: Dakota, 30; Nebraska and S.W. Ohio, seven each; Missouri Valley, six; West New York, four; Michigan-Indiana, Northern, N. Wisconsin and Pittsburgh, three each; Iowa, S. Wisconsin and Texas, two each; and California, Kansas City, N.W. Ohio, Potomac, S. Indiana, and Susquehanna, one each. Thirteen of the 78 non-reporting congregations had full-time pastors and 65 were either vacant or supplied. A large measure of commendation and sincere appreciation is hereby given to the lay leaders and supply ministers in approximately 250 vacant congregations who cooperated so generously, often against great odds, in preparing and submitting their congregational reports—proof positive that where there is the will there is a way.

Now! Let all of our congregations and pastors gird themselves for the 1949 reports which will soon be due. The report blanks will be mailed to all congregations with pastors during the last week of 1949, and to the 300 or more vacant congregations shortly after. The deadline will be February 1, 1950. (On February 1, 1949, the Secretary had received only 1463 reports, or 53%.)

Attention is called to a statistical map on page 83 which appears in the Year Book for the first time. The map shows the number of congregations, membership and Church School enrollment of our Church in every state where we are represented. The map is the work and courtesy of Mr. David W. Balmer, a leading layman of Heidelberg Church, Philadelphia, Pa., to whom our sincere appreciation is hereby expressed.

EXPLANATION OF CODE AND SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated, and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no report for 1948, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in a unit of an area with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, between 500 and 2,500; F, under 500, and in the open country.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME

Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania

REV. R. S. VANDEVERE, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and manager's sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

On the Marthasville and St. Charles Farms, which are communities of their own, buildings and equipment provide a home for about 250 permanently handicapped human beings. Some are very helpless, needing much personal care. For them there is fellowship, entertainment, recreation. They worship the Lord at morning and evening devotionals, and in Sunday services.

But the work is suffering for lack of attendants. These workers at Emmaus must come from the rank and file of our Church. For more information on this kind of Christian service to the least among the brethren of the Christ, write to the superintendent of either of the two locations.

Indians at Work

Winnebago Indian Mission and School

Black River Falls and Neillsville, Wisconsin

Contrary to popular belief, Indians are not supported by the government. They work for their living like other Folks. In their economic distress our Winnebago Mission has assisted them by direct relief, by education, by the establishment of local industries, by sponsoring cooperative enterprises.

But solving economic problems is not enough. There are spiritual hungers which only the Church can satisfy. For 71 years through the ministrations of the Winnebago Indian School and Mission it has brought comfort to the sick and needy, enlightenment to eager young minds, and the Bread of Life to hungry souls. Do you wish to assist this three-fold redeeming enterprise? For ways to help write to

This Home has been operating for more than twelve years without any more equipment than that of a private dwelling. With this handicap Homewood cared for the feeble, seriously ill and dying.

For lack of equipment and room many of the most needy had to be refused admission. We have decided to start work on the larger Homewood in the very near future. Additional funds are needed.

Skill and Experience

In the successful building of pipe organs, skill and experience play an exceedingly important part.

In the Möller organization, each department head is a technical expert; and throughout our organization we have men - distinguished in the field of organ music - who have become associated with us because of their knowledge of pipe organ construction.

This combination of skill and experience is one reason why Möller organs are so outstanding in tonal perfection and design.

INSURANCE IS A NECESSITY

This is the company which confines its business within the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Writes insurance on churches, hospitals, orphanages, seminaries, colleges, pastors' household goods and personal effects, pastors' widows and missionaries; also the property of the members in the congregation.

Pastors' and missionaries' household goods and personal effects are always insured. Pastors' personal property housed in the church office is automatically insured without special endorsement on the policy.

The company writes Fire, Windstorm and Hail insurance, also Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage insurance is important since it gives protection for hazards for which the ordinary fire and windstorm policy does not provide.

All policy holders should make a careful appraisal of their buildings and take an inventory of the contents so as to get their insurance in line with present day values of replacement.

Policies are written on an annual basis for a term of five years. This plan simplifies the payment of premiums. No carrying charge on our policies. Policies can now be written on a five-year term basis.

The company operates under a perpetual charter and policies are non-assessable.

If it is worth having it is worth insuring. Do it today. Tomorrow may be too late.

Inquiries addressed to the Home Office will be cheerfully answered.
